

Open Access Bingo

Open Access Week 2024 @ University of Windsor

Download a preprint from ArXiv .	Name two publishers with whom Leddy Library has discounted open access publishing fees.	Define Open Access.	Using Sherpa Juliet , find Genome Canada's open access policy.	Identify what APC stands for and provide a definition for it.
Name three Open Access initiatives that the Leddy Library supports.	Find a postprint in Scholarship @ UWindsor.	Find and read UWindsor's Policy on Open Access.	Identify a journal for which UWindsor researchers will have 100% of their APC covered.	Explain the difference between green and gold open access.
Define "embargo" (in the context of sharing a research publication).	Download an Open Access dataset from UWindsor's Borealis instance.	Free Square	Identify the platform that journals are hosted on at Leddy Library.	Find three Open Educational Resources in your field of study.
Find an article that is shared under a CC BY 4.0 license.	Find an open access article by a University of Windsor author in Elsevier's ScienceDirect .	Explain the difference between Open Access and Open Education.	Identify a Diamond Open Access article relevant to your area of study.	Define the Subscribe to Open model of scholarly publishing.
Using the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ) find a journal that has no publication fees.	Identify the resource from SPARC which helps authors keep the right to self-archive their work.	Using Sherpa Romeo , find the Open Access pathways for the journal Biotropica .	Find and read the Tri-Agency Open Access Policy on Publications (2015).	Name two benefits of Open Access.

Instructions

- To get “Bingo”, you will need to complete all the prompts in one vertical, horizontal, or diagonal line.
- Some squares have links to the resources you will need to use. In other squares, you will need to find the resource yourself.
- Email scholarship@uwindSOR.ca if you have any questions!
- Happy Open Access Week!