Highlights of ASC's published and unpublished holdings

BLACK HISTORY

The longstanding communities of African descent found in Windsor/Essex and Chatham-Kent are reflected in a diverse array of materials held by the Leddy ASC. These include several archival collections reflecting the history of local Black communities and race relations. We also hold a large number of published works connected to slavery, anti-slavery, the Underground Railroad and Civil Rights activism in North America, of which there is only space for a representative sample below. Contact us for details and additional holdings.
